

NatHERS handbook version register

The NatHERS Assessor Handbook is designed to be a living document that will be updated occasionally, and in alignment with updates of the NatHERS Technical Note. This handbook version register outlines a summary of the latest versions and any previous updates.

The latest/current version of the handbook is listed here and available for download on the NatHERS website: www.nathers.gov.au. Notification of updates will be published on the NatHERS website, and communicated to state and territory building authorities, and to assessors.

- It is the responsibility of assessors to ensure they are using the current version of the handbook. The version number of each Chapter can be found at the footer of each page.
- Minor amendments are represented by a decimal point increment, and do not include fundamental changes to the assessment guidance.
- Major amendments are represented by a whole number increment, and represent significant content updates or amendments that alter assessment guidance or processes.
